The Rare Wine Co. Historic Series

Each Madeira reflects the preferred style of American cities in the early 19th century. The south preferred a drier style, and the north liked it sweeter. Rainwater Madeira falls between both in sweetness and is named after its pale color and delicate texture.

Château de Fargues Flight (1oz each) 100

Sauternes is the legendary sweet wine of Bordeaux, made possible by the fungus Botrytis cinerea. When the “noble rot” appears in autumn, it consumes part of the sugars and acids of the ripe grapes. Grapes are concentrated by evaporation, increasing their density in aromas and sugar and causing a subtle alchemy in the juice.

Château de Fargues was built in 1306. The Lur Saluces family bottled their first vintage of Sauternes in 1943. This flight is a chance to taste perfection again and again, as conditions must be ideal to produce a true Sauternes.
